1968 BLUESTONE

MADISON COLLEGE

Harrisonburg, Virginia

Life, like a dome of
many-coloured glass,
Stains the white
radiance of eternity

Percy Byssche Shelley
Adonais XLVI

College life, like a window of lustrous panes, forms the pattern of a destiny.

Jane Ellen Carden
Bluestone LX

Rays of sunlight pass through the panes of a stained glass window and reflect the colors on everything they touch. Your values, judgements and goals pass through college life and are dyed in shades of experience and learning. These freshly illuminated attitudes reflect on decisions of the future.

Colored panes of a window are the masterwork of an artist. They never fade or scar and never lose the aesthetic value of their inception. There will always be memories for you of Madison College; of Harrisonburg, Virginia; of college life.

The thoughts may fade and deteriorate as years pass on, but the stain which that span of life
leaves on your eternity may never be erased.

Four years of living in the college community are framed by the seasons which disguise the familiar surroundings in a rainbow of evolving garb and you are more aware of the seasons as you are of everything by your heightened sensitivity in the immediacy of learning. You feel the warm laziness of summer and the hot mugginess of spring rain.

You are part of the bursting beauty of autumn . . .

as the encompassing mountains are transformed from fiery brilliance into the more subdued bareness of winter.

You feel the bite of winter's icy wind and the light stroke of falling snow. In childish romps you delight in its touch, in more serious moods you contemplate its stillness. As seasons create an environment, they are the background stains which are to be tinged with experience.

The decision to pursue a major field of study initiates a value scale of experiences represented by all of the tints and shades of red. Isolated red marks your concentrated interest; pink provides incidental balance.

What will you be?
Doctor . . . lawyer . . .
Indian chief?
Memories fade, but a profession stains your eternity.

Involvement brightens the blue of your horizon. Activities build your mind, your body, your character, simultaneously. Calvin Coolidge said, "All growth depends on activity."

A single spark of ambition may grow and glow into a beam that shines ultrablue. From the blue of the horizon to the ultrablue of eternity, involvement extends.

Purple and gold signify accomplishment. They are the deep colors which will not fade even when the thoughts behind them grow dim. The purple and gold are the completed combinations of all momentary and lasting accomplishments. No matter how great or how small each of your achievements, each is added to the pattern of your destiny.

Study disciplines your mind for the future as it sparks interest in the present.

The green in eternity is the green of friendship that grows from a pale tint to the brilliance of emerald. A friend is someone who likes you, someone who smiles at you . . .

someone who teaches you . . .

someone who is a big sister, someone who lives with you . . .

someone who loves you.

Personalities are multicolored because . . .

each is significantly different.

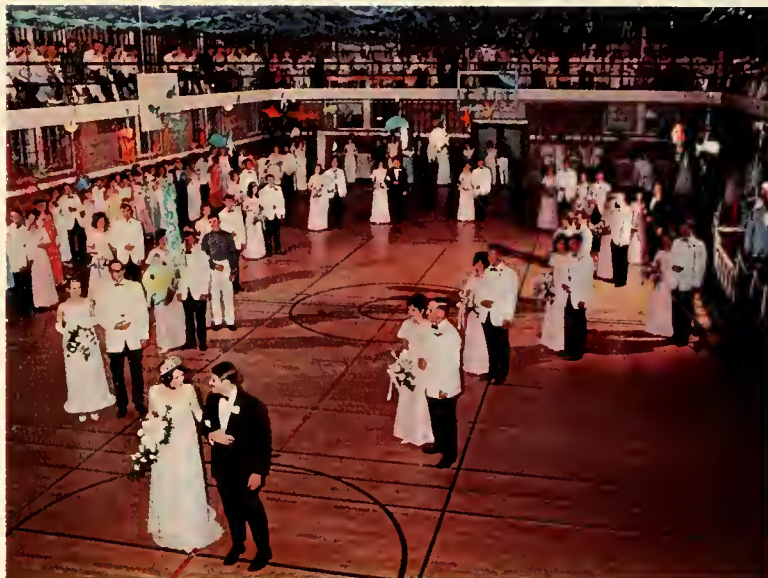

College provides the opportunity for meeting people. They share their talents and capture your interest. For a fleeting moment or for a lifetime, you are a part of them and they, of you.

You may consider each section of the pattern of college experience separately, but the final effect is integral. You are a whole person with a specifically directed purpose. During your years at Madison, college life stains the white radiance of your eternity. A dome of many-colored glass casts an image on your future.

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel M. McFarland

DEDICATION

To keep the way warm in memory; to aid another passing by; it is good to leave something well-remembered and loved behind —

With us, four years with two people who have given of themselves, to make us what we want to be because of what they are —

A lending of time, effort, respect, laughter, guidance; yet more —

A time of growth; of banner raids and a junior circus, of a candlelight march and a morning class, of patience and of time, of being a part of the Class of 1968.

Now we as seniors leave the love and respect given to us, as we dedicate the 1968 Bluestone to
Dr. and Mrs. Daniel M. McFarland.

Mrs. McFarland ponders a question being discussed at the tea for faculty wives.

Dr. McFarland tips his hat to a forgotten hero, Herbert Hoover.

WOMEN'S INTRAMURALS

"Horton's Heroes" set new records during the intramural basketball season.

"With form like this, how can I miss?"

"Now, if the bird will only stay there until I can hit it."

"I wonder whether they'll let me play women's intramurals?"

WOMEN'S SPORTS

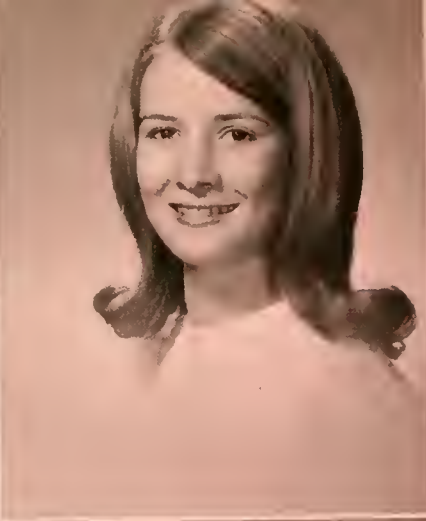

Jody Dalrymple goes up for two points during the game with Westhampton.

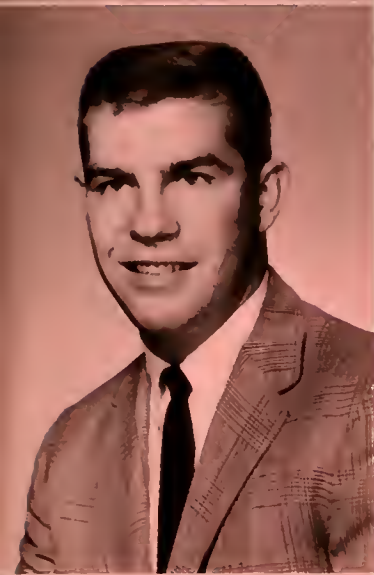

A Madison diver displays precision-like form during a home swimming meet.

Carol Horton, trailed by Longwood opponents, hits a long drive downfield.

FAMILIAR FACES AND PHASES . . .

Wilson is Madison.

FACADES OF BLUE STONE AND BRICK

Engulfed in autumn.

A profile of Duke.

Follow the yellow brick road!

Beehives of brick.

FACETS OF A "FAVORITE SON"

Dr. Raymond C. Dingleline, author of the book, Madison College: The First Fifty Years.

Now let me give you the straight poodah . . .

Virginia is the nucleus of American heritage.

I know not what course others may take, but as for me — give me history or give me death!

These are the three reasons the North lost The War.

So you cut my class to go to Mr. Jefferson's University?

EMPHASIS: EXPRESSIONS

A dog's life — no mail.

Hesitation. Does Dear John really deserve this?

I've got to find M. J. and see if it's too late to sign up for the chartered bus.

WHO'S going to the Christmas Dance with YOU??

" . . . I'm goin' home — G. Tyler writ me a letter . . . "

Hey . . . Midwinters!

That P. O. mob gets rougher everyday.

ART ANTICS

I . D . I . O . T' . S D . E . .

I'll just cover up that fly and no one will ever notice it.

A Kappa Pi pick of the week.

I could be ready for the "nut house!"

The Happening

Now let me see . . .

Art students prepare to exhibit Flower Power.

COMMUNICATIONS OF CHARACTER

How do you do, President Miller?!

I hope Dean Reubush didn't notice that hole in my glove.

It is assumed that a Madison lady will, at all times and in all places, uphold high standards of conduct and appearance.

Put your left foot in, take your left foot out, put your left foot in and shake it all about.

Men on campus . . . a co-ed college.

Grab your pocketbook and sneek out, Freeda Freshman.

Six signs of the snow season.

WINTER'S MASK

Announced by all the trumpets of the sky,
 Arrives the snow, and, driving o'er the fields,
 Seems nowhere to alight: the whited air
 Hides hills and woods, the river, and the heaven, . . .
 Come see the north wind's masonry.
 Out of an unseen quarry evermore
 Furnished with tile, the fierce artificer
 Curves his white bastions with projected roof
 Round every windward stake, or tree, or door.
 Speeding, the myriad-handed, his wild work
 So fanciful, so savage, nought cares he
 For number of proportion. . . .
 And when his hours are numbered, and the world
 Is all his own, retiring, as he were not,
 Leaves, when the sun appears, astonished Art
 To mimic in slow structures, stone by stone,
 Built in an age, the mad wind's nightwork,
 The frolic architecture of the snow.

From The Snow-Storm
 Ralph Waldo Emerson

TESTS OF ENDURANCE

Hm-m-m . . . Monday, roast beef and rice; Tuesday, Swiss steak and rice; Wednesday, country fried steak and rice; Thursday, Chow Mein . . .

The shortest point between your dorm and dinner is a line.

Oo-o-o . . . Did that flounder wink at me?

Open mouth, insert Senate beans.

The only quiet place in the library is a windowsill.

How to spend a Saturday afternoon without really trying.

Dream on, Alice.

MADISON MADNESS

Baby, let me see ya shake a tailfeather!

If I'd known the chartered buses load up on Grace St., I would never have moved to Frederickson.

I wonder how the other half lives?

Now, by working your block courses around student teaching, you can take German Drama and Quantity Food Purchasing without any conflict.

SLOW MEN WORKING

Glassy eyes, swollen glands—deer, you seem to have all the symptoms of mono.

REPAIRS AHEAD

The trusty campi cop advises two damsels in distress.

OFFICERS: K. Ellington, Reporter-Historian; E. Pugh, Treasurer; C. King, Vice-President; C. Harris, Business Manager.

PRESIDENT: Dorothy Seymore

Come see the making of power

Vepco's first commercial atomic power station is now under construction in Surry County, Virginia. In the new Information Center overlooking the site, you will see an excellent slide presentation, fascinating exhibits, and a working model of the reactor. (And from the balcony, you can watch them assemble the real thing.) Open 10 AM to 4 PM Monday through Saturday and 1 PM to 6 PM on Sunday. For tour information call 771-3194 in Richmond.
